The webmaster has done an outstanding job at posting the Elections calendar and information on the WPRM Website. Thank you, Webmaster, for this, very nice job.

The Election Committee still looking for the third member and the Election Committee has not received any consideration requests for this remaining seat. If there are any name submissions by the Board, please let the Election Committee know and provide us with their information and the Election Committee will contact and interview them.

I would like to remind the Board of Directors of the May 12th action on this calendar and to start considering those members and/or nonmembers now as tellers and as we progress in this new year.
