Scheduled Maintenance

Scheduled maintenance was performed on Saturday afternoon February 20th as planned. The move of the equipment went very well with the exception of one stainless-steel screw that decided it did not want to come out to allow the piece of equipment to be de-racked. After some extra persuasion, it eventually yielded. After being moved to the new rack, the web server and website came right back up. However, then the routers began repopulating the new routing tables and the site, although up, was not reliably reachable until all the routing tables got in sync. This took considerably longer than originally expected, but all we could do was wait while they synchronized with each other. By about 9 p.m. PST, everything was updated and became stable.

As expected, no changes are visible to the public, but we are now on a higher-performance server and have a backup server available if the primary one catastrophically fails.

Mailtrain

We continue to have members and the public signup on our “WPRM News” email distribution list on Mailtrain. We now have 163 email addresses, 32 have joined in the last two months.
